

XM is providing a national and more indepth service. If I want to hear LA weather I can hear it on the channel anywhere on my journey and these reports are more indepth than so called "local" broadcasters who are nothing more than automated jukeboxes. I pay XM for this information and it is not being provided by local broadcasters. Don't allow industry lobbies to interfere with XM's right to provide a service which we as customers pay for.